THANK YOU for your compliments

The club would like to thank our members for giving us the wonderful opportunity to serve you. It is our desire to keep you satisfied with our services and none of our achievements would have been possible without you and your unwavering support.

THE CHINESE RESTAURANT

"We would like to thank Irene and her team at The Chinese Restaurant. We had a wonderful dinner time."

Front Office

"Our compliments to the entire Club: accommodation, dining and facilities services never failed to deliver. The delightful suites, friendly staff and pleasant dining experiences rank way beyond our expectations. Too many individual staff to name here; and I believe they know who they are! Thank you all for your continuous service excellence."

The Café & Terrace

"My family and I were very satisfied and happy with the excellent service rendered by Mr Hamdan and Ms Rozana. The above staff is very kind and extended their best hospitality towards all the customers in the restaurant. We wish them all the best and good luck."

Membership

"I wish to thank Ms Zee Mei, the Membership Manager, and the rest of the RTC staff for your excellent services to its members. It's sad that the Club will be closing and we will miss this iconic facility right in the centre of Singapore. I have always enjoyed our stay here and the excellent food, especially at Miyabi Japanese Restaurant and The Chinese Restaurant. I will miss it!"

THE Lounge

"Rozana is an excellent manager who helped us take care of everything for my wife's birthday party. She is very patient, always accommodating our requests and ensuring everything ran smoothly throughout the entire event. She is an amazing manager, and we couldn't have done it without her. Thank you, Rozana!"

Member Relations

"I want to take a moment to sincerely thank Ms Lydia Sharon, an Assistant Member Relations Manager at Raffles Town Club, for her incredible action in returning my wallet which I lost at the venue."

It is not every day you come across someone so thoughtful and honest, and her actions really meant a lot to me. Knowing that someone took the time to ensure my belongings were safe truly put my mind at ease, and I'm so grateful to her for that.

Please do let her know how much I appreciate what she did. It's little acts of kindness like this that leave a big impact."

"Fizah and Hazree are helpful and provide very good service. The decoration is nice. We have fun time here."

MIYABI
JAPANESE RESTAURANT

"We have a very sumptuous dinner prepared by the chef. They are very delicious and creative. Good work and very attentive service!"

Family Reunions

In the Chinese culture, reunion dinner is the most important family get-together meal of the whole year. Diners at the Club's dining outlets elevated the festivities by indulging in reunion meals filled with auspicious dishes crafted by our culinary team, as they get ready to receive everlasting fortune and happiness!

An Energetic Year Ahead

On the 30th January, Members and their guests watched a Lion Dance performance to welcome the Year of Snake. The energetic performance accompanied by the rhythmic drumming, included "plucking the greens" to bless everyone with positive energy to find wealth and fortune in the new year!

A Date to Remember

A must-do for a memorable Valentine's Day date is to enjoy a lovely dinner with your significant other and loved ones! In the cosy ambience of The Dining Room, diners enjoyed a 4-course meal that speaks to their heart, completed with a glass of wine. It is a special date to remember.

MindChamps®
preschool

@ RAFFLES TOWN CLUB

We believe that learning extends beyond the classroom. Our K1 Champs from MindChamps PreSchool @ Raffles Town Club embarked on a meaningful learning journey, one that touched hearts of all ages and created fond memories for many.

In their quest to understand and appreciate the community, our Champs decided to bring joy to the senior citizens in our neighbourhood. With boundless energy and bright smiles, they engaged in interactive games, performed heartwarming songs and dances, and most importantly, shared their love and kindness with the elderly.

In the spirit of giving, our Champs also took part in a delightful gift exchange. Seeing the joy on the faces of both the young and the elderly was a beautiful reminder of the power of connection and compassion. Through hands-on experiences like these, our Champs learn the values of gratitude, generosity, and community spirit - lessons that will stay with them for a lifetime.

We are incredibly proud of our Champs for spreading so much joy, and we look forward to many more heartwarming learning journeys ahead!

Celebrating Mum & Dad

Mother's Day and Father's Day are cherished occasions to express gratitude and love for the parents who have shaped our lives. While the traditions may vary, the sentiment remains universal. Let's take a moment to explore the origins of these heartfelt celebrations and discover ideas for making these days extra special.

The Origin of Mother's Day

Mother's Day, as we know it today, originated in the early 20th century. In 1908, Anna Jarvis organised the first Mother's Day service in West Virginia, USA, to honour her mother's selfless devotion to reuniting families divided by the Civil War. In 1914, President Woodrow Wilson proclaimed Mother's Day a national holiday in the USA, setting the precedent for its global recognition. Traditionally celebrated on the second Sunday of May each year, this day is now a time to honour the nurturing love and sacrifices of mothers in many countries worldwide.

The Origin of Father's Day

Father's Day, though younger, has an equally touching history. Inspired by Mother's Day, Sonora Smart Dodd, whose single father raised six children in Washington, USA, sought to honour fathers' strength and dedication. The first Father's Day was observed in 1910, and the idea grew in popularity across the USA, in 1972, President Richard Nixon made it a national holiday in the USA, celebrated on the third Sunday of June each year. Today, Father's Day is an opportunity to recognise the guidance and support fathers provide around the world.

Berry Good for Health

Berries, small tasty fleshy fruits, comes in a variety of colours and even shapes. They are not only pretty to look at but also packed with loads of nutrition, bringing health benefits! Some of the health benefits are:

Antioxidants

Berries are a great source of antioxidants. Antioxidants help boost immune system and can protect cells from free radical damage, reducing inflammation. These not only help to defend and lower cancer and heart disease risk, but can also combat wrinkles and premature aging of skin.

Anthocyanin, a type of antioxidant, helps lower blood pressure by stimulating the release of nitric oxide, that helps dilate blood vessels. Anthocyanin also protects the arteries walls, preventing them from becoming stiff, optimising blood circulation.

High in Fibre

Berries are great for people trying to manage weight. It gives us a sense of fullness, due to its high fibre content. The soluble fibre in berries slows down the movement of food in the digestive system, reducing the feeling of hunger. The reduction of food consumption will lead to a decrease in calorie intake making weight management easier.

Dietary fibre in berries helps keep your gut microbiome balanced, it improves gut health and promotes bowel movements too!

High in Vitamins

Berries are also known for its high content of vitamins, which includes vitamin C. Vitamin C is essential for skin health and collagen formation which supports new tissue growth, for instance, healing of cuts and wounds.

Berries that Top the Nutrition Chart

Blueberries, raspberries, strawberries, cranberries and goji berries are some of the most nutrient-dense berries. Let's take a look at their nutrients content and food that they complement!

Blueberries

Blueberries are high in vitamin C and vitamin A which are needed to boost immunity. It is also packed with anthocyanins, a type of antioxidants, giving blueberries their vivid colour.

Raspberries

Raspberries are not only loaded with vitamin C and anthocyanins, but also fibre that is good for gut health. It can also nourish bones and nerves with minerals like calcium, potassium and magnesium.

Since raspberries has a jammy texture and is one of the sweetest berries around, making it a great addition to salad or turning it into jam to spread on toasts.

Strawberries

Strawberries top the chart for its vitamin C content, which is great for not only immune system but also skin health as vitamin C supports production of collagen. A cup of strawberries contains more than the recommended vitamin C daily intake. Folate (vitamin B9) and potassium are also found in strawberries, which support healthy red blood cells and blood pressure.

Strawberries are delicious when eaten with honey, chocolate, fresh cream and even baked goods!

Cranberries

Cranberries are rich in antioxidants, like anthocyanins, flavonoids and proanthocyanidins. Its especially high content of proanthocyanidins, helps reduce the risk of urinary tract infections.

Pairing cranberries with sweet food makes it easier to consume as tartness will be reduced. It is recommended to enjoy cranberries with pecans, quinoa and apples or consume it in the form of juice!

Goji Berries

On top of being gut-friendly for its high fibre content and supporting healthy red blood cells for its rich iron content, goji berries are good for eyesight as it is a good source of vitamin A. The red-orange plant pigments in goji berries, known as carotenoids, decreases risk of diseases as it reduces oxidative stress and inflammation in the body.

Goji berries are usually available as dried berries with tangy flavour. They are great to eat with food that has deep nutty flavours like oats, coconut and chocolate. Add goji berries to yoghurt parfaits, oatmeal or eat it on its own!

With the above knowledge and understanding of berries, start adding berries to your diet and reap the health benefits!
