Let's Talk

The Missing

Do you have a missing tooth and would like to replace it? Years ago, using a denture is the only way you could replace a lost tooth. Nowadays, there are several tooth replacement options available. Dental implants have overtaken dentures and conventional bridges to become one of the most popular ways to replace lost or missing teeth.

Join us for a talk with our invited guest, Dr. Hardev Singh, a clinical director, to learn everything you need to know about dental implants. You will learn about dental implants, how they work, how long they last and more.
