Let's Talk / Hypertension 101: Unsilencing the "Silent Killer"

Have you wondered why hypertension is often referred to as the "silent killer"? Truth is, one does not have to feel sick to have hypertension.

A person who seems strong and fit may suffer from hypertension. It is not uncommon to have people with undiagnosed hypertension and this can pose a great risk if hypertension goes undetected for a prolonged period.

In this talk, we will discuss what symptoms may hint at hypertension, how to establish the diagnosis of hypertension and what lifestyle measures to take to improve blood pressure. We will also help you understand when medications become necessary and what concurrent health risks need to be assessed together with hypertension.

THANK YOU for your compliments

The club would like to thank our members for giving us the wonderful opportunity to serve you. It is our desire to keep you satisfied with our services and none of our achievements would have been possible without you and your unwavering support.

THE CHINESE RESTAURANT

I celebrate my birthday lunch at Chinese Restaurant. Among the family members at the lunch was my elderly mother and several others. Our table was attended by Bobo.

I wish to express special mention and deep appreciation to Bobo for managing our table excellently. Our order was well taken, food was presented and dishes cleared very professionally and efficiently. She also helped to manage the birthday cake which my family had brought for me at the end of the lunch. I was very impressed by her professionalism and courtesy. You have an excellent team indeed!

Which Tourism is for You?

While it is expected that tourism industry will be recovering gradually, tourism industry around the world has evolved and is offering a wealth of options to travellers too! Here are some types of tourism options for the planning of your next getaway.

Adventure Tourism

Agritourism

Culinary Tourism

Food lovers will love to go on a trip to explore a new food destination. The purpose of visit is not only to taste and appreciate authentic local food and beverages, it also encompasses activities beyond consumption. Visiting scenic landscapes allows one to immerse in the beauty of the natural environment, made possible by the conscious conservation effort of the locals. While enjoying the experience, visitors make their trip environmentally sustainable by reducing the negative impact they bring to the environment.

8 Make-ahead Christmas Food

Holiday entertaining does not mean you will be stuck in the kitchen all day. Take the stress out with make-ahead food that you can prepare beforehand and serve later, making entertaining your family and friends this festive season less stressful. Here is a list of food you can prepare in advance for a stress-free Christmas dinner party.

Gravy

Christmas dinner would not be a feast without a good gravy. A good gravy base can be the saviour of dry turkey. It is easy to freeze and reheat on the day. When heating it up, be sure to add the roasting juices from the turkey for a luxurious finishing touch.

Cranberry Sauce

A spoonful of sweet, zingy cranberry sauce is a classic pairing with the roasted turkey. It is easy to make with only a handful of ingredients. Simply cool the sauce and freeze it in a well-sealed container. To defrost, leave it in the fridge overnight and warm it up before serving. If you have leftovers, this sauce is a delicious addition to pastries and sandwiches.

Turkey Stuffing

Preparing the turkey stuffing in advance not only means one less thing to stress about when organising a Christmas party, but also allows the stuffing to absorb as much flavour as possible. The best part is you can freeze it directly in an oven pan and put it straight in the oven to heat up on the day of the Christmas party.

Prawn Cocktail

This is a simple and refreshing appetiser to make. Frozen prawns, homemade cocktail sauce and fresh salad can be easily put together on a busy Christmas day. Be sure to make the sauce in advance to free up a little more time on the day.

Roasted Potatoes

You can half-roast your potatoes until they are a little golden or for about 30 minutes. Fully cool them down before putting them into the freezer. They will only need to be re-roasted for about 20 minutes in a hot oven for crispy potatoes that nobody will guess that were not made on the day.

Lasagna with Meat Sauce

This meaty and cheesy dish is a crowd-pleaser. You can cook the meat, assemble the entire dish 1 to 2 days ahead, and keep it in the refrigerator. To enjoy this dish, put it in the oven for about an hour before serving.

Preparation Tips

🎄 Prepare your vegetables the day before. For instance, peel and chop the onions and put them away in a Ziplock bag. For dishes like roasted vegetables, you can start preparing the root vegetables by parboiling them for about 12 minutes and storing them in a sealed container in the fridge.

🎄 Set up the table the night before the party. If it is not possible, prepare the decorations, tableware, cutlery, and linen in a designated spot for the table to be quickly assembled before the party.

🎄 Stay organized and list what you need to do for the Christmas feast. Preparing as much in advance as possible so you only need to think about and cook a few things on the day of the party.

Mulled Wine

This warm, comforting drink is easy to make and can be kept a few months before Christmas. Add your favourite herbs and spices to the wine; the longer you leave it, the richer it will taste. Take note to add the fruits to the wine later, as it can get soggy over time.

Christmas Pudding

Christmas pudding is like a dense sponge fruit cake made of dried fruits, spices, and brandy. It is best made in advance to allow all the flavours of the ingredients to be soaked into the cake. It only needs to be heated up by steaming it on the celebration day. You may top it up with butterscotch sauce and nuts to boost the flavour of this moist and sticky festive cake.

Hold your Christmas party without the hassle! Our team of culinary chefs has put together all-time favourite Christmas goodies, from Roasted Whole Turkey, BBQ Pork Ribs to Christmas Log Cake, to make hosting a party easier for you this festive season.

To order your Christmas goodies, please contact
The Café & Terrace at 6357 3332 / 333.

@ RAFFLES TOWN CLUB

Our Playgroup to Nursery 2 Champs from MindChamps PreSchool @ Raffles Town Club went on a field trip to Little Farm Explorer to learn about Urban Farming. This immersive experience gave our young Champs the opportunity to explore the wonders of Urban Farming in a fun and educational way!

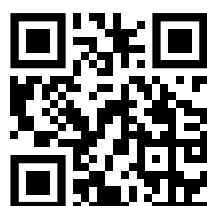

Our Champs had a fantastic time gaining insights into aquaponics, learning about the various edible plants and fruits, and discovering the valuable role of chickens in farming. They even had the chance to interact with the chickens by touching and feeding them!

But the adventure didn't stop there! Our Champs put their newfound knowledge into action by building their very own aquaponics systems and experienced the thrill of catching their own fish and bringing them home.

This extraordinary outdoor experience enriched our Champs' understanding of sustainable farming practices, instilling in them a sense of responsibility for both the environment and the animals they encountered.

They left Little Farm Explorer with not just a fish to take home but also a deeper connection to nature and the world of urban farming!

Book a centre visit and find out how we nurture the love of learning in our little ones.
